

1.2. Emergency Evacuation

1.2.9. Incident Fire Commander

A designated and trained personnel from owner representative or facility management or management on lease, responsible for developing and executing emergency action plans, strategies, incident supervision and ordering.

1.2.10. Fire Warden

A facility management staff or designated personnel trained to deliver specific duties such as assisting people and disabled during evacuation, usage of fire extinguishers during initial fire stages, coordination with emergency responders/Civil Defence, providing first aid, performing headcount, reporting to fire commander etc., during emergencies, as per emergency action plan.

1.2.11. Response Team Member—FIRE RESPONDER

Trained personnel, working under and in close association with Fire Warden who upon Fire Warden's instructions, responds to the initial stages of fire accidents with fire extinguishers, fire blankets.

1.2.12. Response Team Member—FIRST AIDERS

Trained personnel, working under and in close association with Fire Warden who upon Fire Warden's instructions, responds to the initial stages of fire accidents with first aid.

1.2.13. Response Team Member—ASSEMBLY POINT COORDINATOR

Trained personnel, working under and in close association with Fire Warden who upon Fire Warden's instructions, responds to the initial stages of fire accidents with and performs his duties at assembly points to communicate with evacuees and headcounts.

1.2.14. Response Team Member—DRILL OBSERVER

Trained personnel, who is an observer of the emergency evacuation drill in a facility, making notes of the familiarity of occupants with emergency action plans, procedures, flaws in their response, flaws in the emergency response teams conduct and analyzing the efficiency of the over all procedures and the emergency action plan.