

1.3. Storage

1.3.11. Safety Can

A listed container, of not more than 20 L (5.3 gal) capacity, having a spring-closing lid and spout cover and so designed that it will safely relieve internal pressure when subjected to fire exposure.

1.3.12. Fire Resistant Aboveground Storage Tank

An atmospheric aboveground storage tank with thermal insulation that has been evaluated for resistance to physical damage and for limiting the heat transferred to the primary tank when exposed to hydrocarbon fuel fire. It is listed in accordance with UL 2080.

1.3.13. Floating Roof Tank

Floating roof tank incorporates any of the following.

- a. A closed-top pontoon or double-deck metal floating roof in an open-top tank constructed in accordance with API Standard 650, Welded Steel Tanks for Oil Storage.
- b. A fixed metal roof with ventilation at the top and roof eaves constructed in accordance with API 650 and containing a closed-top pontoon or double-deck metal floating roof meeting the requirements of API 650.
- c. A fixed metal roof with ventilation at the top and roof eaves constructed in accordance with API 650 and containing a metal floating cover supported by liquidtight metal floating devices that provide sufficient buoyancy to prevent the liquid surface from being exposed when half of the flotation is lost

1.3.14. Pressure Vessel

A container or other component designed in accordance with the ASME Boiler and Pressure Vessel Code.

1.3.15. Bulk Storage Tank

The term bulk storage applies to following liquids storage arrangements.

- a. The storage of flammable / combustible liquid in fixed tanks that exceeds 60 gallons. (230 L) capacity.
- b. The storage of flammable and combustible liquids in portable tank that exceeds 660 gallons (2500 L) capacity.
- c. The storage of flammable and combustible liquids in intermediate bulk containers that exceeds 793 gallons (3000 L) capacity.

1.3.16. Intermediate Bulk Container

Any closed vessel having a liquid capacity not exceeding 793 gal (3000 L) and intended for storing and transporting liquids.
